No 1. To the Inspector Gl of Prisons & Ex Commissioner Cr 160-61 of 18th July 1903

Directing the removal of prisoner, T. G. Krishna Rao from the Mysore Jail to the Bangalore Central Jail and his being produced before the Special Commissioner appointed to enquire into the irregularities in the Civil Hospital at Chikmagalur & after the conclusion of the examination of the said prisoner, he shall be transferred to the Mysore Jail.

G. R. S. 58

July 15th 1

Sir.

In the enquiry before the Special Commissioner re Irregularities in the Chikmagalur Hospital, the examination of the Writer T. Y. Krishna Rao who is undergoing sentence of imprisonment in the Mysore Jail is considered necessary, but as the Prisoners' Testimony Regulation does not apply to proceedings in such departments enquiry, no power can be vested under that Regulation the appearance of the Prisoner. At the Commissioner's suggestion, Mr. Chandrasekhara Aiyar was consulted, and he, after going through the said Regulation, the Prisoners Act and the Jail Manuals, proposed that an order might be issued by Government in the terms terms of the enclosed draft. The favour of your approval of the draft.

If the course mentioned in the draft is approved by Government, I beg that the order may be issued early, as the 1st August 1903 is fixed for the examination of the witness.

Yours very obediently
P. Ramachandra Ayyar

H. V. Nanjundayya Esq. M. A. M. L.
Secretary to the Govt. of H. H. the Maharaj of Mysore

I am doubtful of the applicability of any of the provisions quoted.

Perhaps a better course would be to pass an order without quoting any enabling provision. The draft is submitted for approval.
